

As a resident of Indiana who is extremely satisfied with the current No Call status, I find it offensive that the current rule is being challenged by several banks in the name of being better for me. I already plan to move my business from the banks doing this to ones that actually respect me and my privacy. Please do NOT allow this to come about. Thanks.